Dear Editor,

Please put my letter about Ted, my last Clydesdale ♂ bred, that has become a big celebrity and requires all your readers votes to win "The Champion of Champions" in the N.F.U's Countryyard 2 Competition.com.

He has excelled himself throughout his life winning the Junior Male Championship at the Royal Show of England, mascot for the Rare Breeds Survival Trust raising thousands of pounds & N.F.U. Equine Champion. He stands 18 hands & weighs nearly a tonne and is a great advertisement for the Clydesdale breed, having plenty of bone, a good dark colour & all the breed's attributes. His competition ends on January 14th so please give him your votes & make Tolly Outram even more proud of Ted.

I wish all my friends fellow exhibitors and readers a very prosperous New Year.

Yours sincerely,
James Posnett.
